Additional Information

You might have to pay tax on any interest that exceeds your Personal Savings Allowance (PSA). How your account is taxed will depend on your personal situation. The tax information we provide is based on the laws and HMRC guidance as we currently understand them, but these may be updated in the future. For further details, please refer to the HMRC website.

*Gross

The rate paid with no income tax deducted. For more information on your Personal Savings Allowance, visit www.gov.uk

AER (Annual Equivalent Rate)

A rate which illustrates what the gross rate would be if the interest was paid and added once each year.

How we report interest to HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC)

We report the total interest earned on your savings account without deducting any interest penalty that may have been applied due to a withdrawal or closure. This might have been because you were unable to give notice in line with the account terms and conditions. This may mean a higher portion of your personal savings allowance will be used up. You can find out more information about your Personal Savings Allowance at www.gov.uk.
